Areas to Improve (For each member)	Could expand unit test coverage for boundary NIC validation; explore progressive web app (PWA) features for patient portal.	Implement automated doctor consultation room allocation; add calendar export (.ics) for doctor schedules.	Could optimize concurrent booking queries using optimistic locking; add waiting list queue for fully booked slots.	Add automated purchase order generation when stock falls below reorder level; introduce batch barcode printing.	Could add multi-sample barcode tracking for lab specimens; enhance graphical visualization of abnormal reference values.
Comments	Outstanding dedication as Product Owner and module lead. Dila delivered patient registration and triage ahead of schedule and ensured clean entity models.	Exceptional Scrum Master. Kavinda maintained disciplined sprint backlogs, kept the team on schedule, and delivered doctor management with high polish.	Brilliant technical work on appointment scheduling and double-booking guard logic. Chanul communicated proactively and delivered rock-solid code.	Highly dependable and meticulous. Harshika implemented atomic stock deductions and inventory management flawlessly, making billing aggregation seamless.	Exceptional commitment to quality. Nethuli built the complete lab test lifecycle, handled sample status transitions cleanly, and completed all deliverables on time.

Overall Team Evaluation

How well did your group function as a team overall? (Excellent / Good / Fair / Poor)

Evaluation: Excellent — The team exhibited outstanding technical competence, commitment, and maturity. Every member took 100% ownership of their module, integrated with the shared backend API, and validated their tables in MySQL.

Additional Comments

If you have any additional comments regarding a specific member, you may include them in this section. (This is optional.)

I am extremely proud of the entire group. Every single member contributed equally, attended all coordination sessions, and demonstrated complete mastery of their modules during our rehearsal presentations.
